City Employees Get 5% Pay Boosts

Referendum On DC Sales Tax In November?

Daly City's much-contested sales tax may be put to voters for referendum decision in the November general election, the council learned Monday night.

This was the report from City Attorney Paul Hupf, asked to check the legality of the move earlier this month by Councilman Edward Dennis.

Hupf, after a conference with County Clerk John Bruning, said the council could request a showdown by asking county supervisors via resolution to place the issue on the November ballot.

Hupf remarked that Bruning appeared "unenthusiastic" about the Daly City request, mainly because Bruning reminded that the November ballot is extremely long and extra workers would have to be hired to canvass the Daly City returns.

Councilmen made no comment on Hupf's interpretation Monday night. Dennis was absent, on vacation in Seattle.

City Manager Howard Stites estimated that a special election here on sales tax would cost the city about $5500. There would be no cost to the city if the issue were on the November ballot, however.

In such a referendum election, a simple majority vote determines the decision.

Sales tax passed here February 10 by 3-2 council vote. The extra penny levy went into effect on April 1.

Yellow Cab Buys Out 'Hilltop'

Familiar Yellow Cab vehicles soon will be seen in Daly City as a result of bidding Tuesday in Redwood City Superior Court.

Yellow Cab was highest of three bidders and will buy out the assets of Hilltop Cab, which entered litigation when one of its three partners brought suit to dissolve the contract.

Iris Crooker filed the dissolution suit against Beverly Swint and tavern owner George Kirchhubel. The court appointed a receiver and asked for bids.

The Hilltop Cab owners aired a token bid Tuesday, but Yellow Cab went higher, seconded by an intended third cab firm, composed of Joseph Hendrickson, James Wilson, Ray Sargent, Roy Camillo and Joseph Lewkowitz.

Yellow's bid for Hilltop assets was about $7600, exceeding that of the five-man organization by $100. Attorney Julian Cohn represented the latter bidder.

Yellow Cab will assume the five cab permits held by Hilltop. A request for more cabs would mean application for additional permits.

Painting House, Man, 70, Falls; Severely Hurt

Helping his so paint his Westlake home here Wednesday morning resulted in a fall from a ladder and serious injuries for an elderly San Francisco man.

Treated at Junipero Serra Hospital for shoulder and rib injuries was David C. Robinson, 70, who lives at 871 31st avenue.

The mishap occured just before noon, according to Robinson's son, Clifford, of 386 Glenwood drive.

Sherman Heights Drainage Project Okayed By Council

Councilman Bob St. Clair's move to eliminate Sherman Heights' drainage problems brought unanimous council action Monday night.

The city will begin work immediately on the corrective project, which will cost an estimated $633.53.

The Fairway drive drain pipe mess still is being studied by the council. They have yet to receive an agreement from golf course officials on correcting their part of the problem. The city has attended to its share, according to City Engineer Otis Calhoun.

Woman Motorist Has Heart Attack In Heavy Traffic

A woman stricken by a mild heart attack was found slumped over the wheel of her auto in the middle lane of a busy street here Monday by Officer Jerry Galindo.

The car, driven by Mrs. Mary West, was spotted at a signal by special officer Richard H. Leahy who immediately called Galindo.

Galindo transported Mrs. West to Junipero Serra Hospital. She was later taken to Kaiser Hospital.

CITY SLICES DOG LICENSE FEE IN HALF

Councilman Monday night okayed a new six-months' ($1) dog license fee, a preview to turning over animal pound duties to the county after July 1.

City Manager Howard Stites said the measure is based on an expected tri-city agreement for a county-operated animal shelter serving Daly City, Pacifica and South San Francisco.

The county has allocated funds in its budget for a new shelter between DC and Pacifica. Agreement by the cities has yet to be confirmed, but Stites said his talks with Pacifica and SSF officials indicated both neighboring communities were interested.

Residents who already have paid the $2-a-year fee for animal licenses for next fiscal year are eligible for a $1 refund, Stites pointed out.

'Neat' Burglar Gets $257 At DC Drug Store

A "neat" burglar victimized the Daly City Drug Company, 6331 Mission street, sometime between 10:30 p.m. Thursday and early Friday morning.

Owner Thomas C. Bournellis, of 10 Dartmouth street, declared he had been in the store approximately an hour before he noticed that the back door had been "jimmied" and there was cash gone from the register. He said that nothing else was disturbed in the store.

About $100 cash was taken from the register and a sack containing $157 was also removed.

The Judges Had A Tough (?) Time

Trustees Okay Classified Staff Wage Increases

An entirely new Class V salary schedule for maintenance and operation men was adopted at Monday night's meeting of high school district trustees.

All steps were raised $15 a month in this category, or $180 a year, excepting the seventh-to-twelfth month personnel who received a readjustment in pay scale.

Superintendent Ed Morgan stated that the readjustment of percentage was due to personnel putting more into retirement than the increase amounted to. He also noted that Class V maximums range from $10 a month to $36 a month.

This means a yearly increase ranging from $120 to $432 a year. This highest range deals primarily with the skilled trades.

There was a slight raise in the first-six-months category of Clerical Class IV personnel, but this applied to only one person.

Two Commended

Two classified personnel received special commendations from Morgan and the board.

JEFF HIGH BEAUTY NEW CITY 'QUEEN'

Blonde Mary Cunningham, 5-4 inches and 37-24-37 from Jefferson High, Thursday night outlasted 14 other lovelies in the fourth annual "Miss Daly City" contest.

The 17-year-old personality-plus Mary, oldest of Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Cunningham's six children, won the judges' nod and warm applause from a disappointingly small audience at Westlake Joe's.

Phyllis Adams, '57 city queen, crowned her successor and Mary was officially congratulated by Mayor Micheal DeBernardi, one of the judges. Other ballots were cast by Mayor John Newton of Colma, Municipal Judge Tom Bocci Jr., Bank of America's Louis Pisani and reporter Roy Hurlbert.

Miss Cunningham, who has a "B" grade average at Jeff entering her final year, earned the close decision for her beauty, exceptional poise and refreshing personality. Phyllis Prater, also of Jeff, was the runnerup. She's a stunning blonde with splendid finesse for a 17-year-old.

Mary will represent Daly City in the upcoming San Mateo County Fair queen contest. If successful there—and she may be—she will advance to the California State Fair contest.

A Daly City representative has yet to win at county-level.

Mary's ascension to the throne gave her a perfect contest record. It was her first attempt in any contest.

The Cunningham family, whose residence is 144 Frankfort street, is headed by dad Wilmer, a professional planner-estimator and native of Nebraska; mom Dorothy, Colorado-born; and Mary's brothers

City To Seek Westmoor Land For Rec Site

Parks and Recreation Commissioners met with Councilmen Bob St. Clair Tuesday night and discussed the Palisades and Westmoor High areas for possible recreation sites.

Dee Van Nest, parks and recreation director, said that a tentative meeting date of July 14 has been set with high school trustees on the Westmoor High site request.

Negotiations to purchase property along Edgemar road, which adjoins Westmoor High School, may begin at this time, Van Nest said. Price of the land will be one of the particulars discussed, he stated.

Fire Chief Elmer Kennedy also attended the meeting and Van Nest declared that if purchased, the strip of Westmoor High land would include a 150-by-150 foot locale for a new fire station.

The commission, representatives of the city council and members of Doelger Corporation met on June 14 and looked over the Palisades and Northridge sites.

John Wayne Goes 'Off Script' Here

Movie cowboy John Wayne is seldom hurt in encounters with the Indians but John Wayne Riddles, 238 Peoria street, was not as lucky as the movie idol.

Riddles accidentally injured himself while inspecting a bow and arrow at the Daly City Archery Shop. The arrow made a one-inch laceration in his eyelid. Shirley Barrett, shop owner, called police, who responded and took Riddles to Junipero Serra Hospital for emergency treatment.

SCALE TOPS PENINSULA

134 Personnel Due Cost-Of-Living Hike

The council Monday night gave Daly City's 134 employees across-the-board salary hikes to keep pace with the cost of living.

All regular employees up to and including police sergeants and fire department battalion chiefs were granted straight 5 per cent raises. Department heads and other upper echelon positions each get $342 raises next fiscal year, which begins next week.

George Watts, city finance officer, said Monday's unanimous council move will add $31,980 to personnel salaries, making the '58-'59 total in this category about $700,000.

Daly City and South San Francisco brass last week virtually bolted from the "standardized" wage plan asked last Friday in San Bruno at the North San Mateo County Council of Cities meeting.

Separate Course

Mayor Micheal DeBernardi and Councilman Bob St. Clair, backed by South San Francisco councilman Pat Ahern, steered a course separate from the other cities. They said that salaries of firemen and policemen in both DC and SSF should be higher than in other north county council cities, because of additional crime prevention problems, and in the case of South San Francisco, the potential hazards of industrial fires.

Mayor De Bernardi, commenting on Monday's action, said that Daly City and Burlingame still lead the Peninsula in pay for municipal employees.

Under the new pay scale, the city manager's yearly pay will move from $14,980 to $15,033. City attorney goes from $5381 to $5650. City clerk and treasurer remain the same, $550 and $400 a month, in that order.

Salary for director of public works, now ranging from $802-929 per month on the city's four-step scale, climbs to $871-$1004.

Parks and recreation director moves to a monthly range of $572-$658 from $518-$598.

City purchaser, now $477-$518, goes to $471-546. Building inspector's new monthly rate ranges from $520-$602, and the librarian's new scale is $471-$546.

Fire department increases: captain, from $447-$518 to $471-$546; battalion chief, from $493-$570 to $520-$602; fire chief, from $570-$660 to $627-$722.

Police department: sergeant, $447-$518 to $471-$546; lieutenant, from $469-$544 to $495-$573; captain, from $518-$599 to $546-$627; assistant chief, from $598-$693 to $627-$722, and chief, from $629-$728 to $689-$793.

Police officers and regular firemen go from a scale of $405-$469 to $428-$495.

City Has 'No Say' On Deeds

Councilmen Monday were instructed by City Attorney Paul Hupf that the city has no jurisdiction in matters involving deed violations on homes in Westlake.

Hupf's opinion, in which he cited an earlier interpretation by his predecessor and now Superior Judge Frank Blum, answered a charge made by Westlake Improvement Association that the city was granting building permits which in some cases violated deed specifications in Westlake.

Hupf held that legally the city can't enforce deed restrictions. In granting building permits, he said that city ordinances are the sole basis on permit authorization.

Hupf added that in the case of the WIA, deed restrictions are enforceable only through civil action.

City Manager Howard Stites said he had met with association officials on the matter, telling them that all permits the city grants are open to their inspection. But it's up to the association to enforce its own deed restrictions, he agreed with Hupf.

In other main business Monday, the council:

1. Accepted by resolution the deed on the Palisades reservoir site from builder Henry Doelger.
2. Held over for study the public works director's plan for enforcing the weed abatement ordinance.
3. Withheld decision on re-

Accident Kills McKeon Worker

A Sacramento man was fatally injured here Tuesday while working in the McKeon Construction area in St. Francis Heights.

CITY FACES DECISIONS ON BUDGET

Department - by - department authorizations and priority decisions on capital outlay expenditures in the '58-'59 city budget will be tackled by councilmen next Wednesday night.

The council has studied the entire budget and next week begins making the decisions that will lead to final adoption before the end of July

Monday night's pay increases to 134 city employees, adding $31,980 to the city payroll, will be adjusted to the budget, as will decisions on requests for more fire and police personnel, and a timetable of expenditure for the new Westlake library, fire station and water wells, among many projects.

CITY RESUCITATORS

When Minutes Count...

By Lou Lucia

"People call their friends and the priest but forget all about the fire department in cases where the person may be saved," says Westlake Fire Battalion Chief Mel Hanson.

Hanson reminds it take only 90 seconds for the fire department to reach any home in the Daly City area and administer oxygen through a resucitator. There are three resucitators available. Cost was $600 apiece for the life saving apparatus.

There are approximately two calls a month for the resucitator, Hanson commented. Fellow Battalion Chief Wayne Alexander said that two people might have been saved recently if the fire department had been notified immediately.

Alexander said that the firemen are not doctors, but of the 26 men (including Chief Elmer Kennedy) located at the Westlake firehouse, five men are first aid instructors and the rest all hold advanced aid cards. (These are the two highest categories of first aid and there is a third titled "standard").

Typical Case

In one case, the fire department treated a boy with spinal meningitis. The two firemen who treated the lad had to have a check-up at the doctors. Alexander noted that the fire department does not have knowledge of what illness people have contacted.

The resucitator has three functions. First, resucitation, which is the action of the machine doing the breathing for the person. Second, inhalation, which oxyginizes the body. The inhalation is administered to people who already are breathing but helps the person by 100 percent oxygen.

The third phase is aspiration. Aspiration removes the mucus that may be lodged in the bronchial tubes.

Homelight units are also available through the local fire department. These units are used in case of a power failure and aid people in iron lungs or rocking beds.

"Saving a person's life is a bigger thrill to the men than receiving a pay raise and is a great morale booster," Hanson declared.

Resolutions of appreciation were passed citing Neils Nelson, superintendent of buildings, grounds and transportation since March of 1938, who will retire on July 3, and William Fuchs, Jefferson High custodian since December 1951, who will retire on July 10.

David R. Ferrante was appointed instructor of physics and general science at Westmoor High, thus completing the list of new teachers hired. Ferrante is an alumnus of University of Notre Dame and is currently completing graduate work at University of California.

During the past year, Ferrante has been teaching full-time at Washington High School in San Francisco under the university's internship program.

The following adoptions were made for the 1958-59 school year:

Night Teachers

Night school instructors received an increase of $4.50 per hour from the present $4.25.

Substitute teachers salaries were increased to $17 per day or $3.50 per period. The present salary is $16 per day or $3 per period.

Home teachers are to receive $4.50 per hour, plus mileage. The present rate is $4.25 per hour and mileage.

Department heads' salaries stayed the same, one preparation period, plus $200 a year.

The board of trustees signed plans and specifications for the "on" and "off" site work at Westmoor High Morgan stated that advertising would begin within the next few weeks. Grading out of the remainder of the property is to be accomplished along with installation of streets, curbs, gutters and sidewalks surrounding the school.

The straightening of Westmoor avenue and installation of the school's lower athletic field, which will be used for track and football, are to follow. Work will be performed in conjunction with the work of the city, builder Henry Doelger and Zita Corporation, Morgan said.

Pacifica Planners

Monday's agenda ended with the board meeting with the Pacifica Planning Commission. Bud Spencer, chairman of the Pacifica board, turned over to the planning commission a brochure which contained all of the engineering reports which have been received on possible high school sites in the Pedro Valley area.

The commission will study these reports and submit their recommendations to the board, Morgan stated. All commissioners were present for the meeting along with Pacifica City Manager Karl Baldwin.

Crocker Fires Jail 8 Youths

County authorities became slightly suspicious after the county fire department was called for the second time in two days to extinguish grass fires on the Crocker Estate.

So eight Daly City boys were rounded up Tuesday and referred to juvenile authorities.

Vince Marcelli, Crocker caretaker, and Daly City police apprehended the youths who were "playing" on the hill.

Fall In Bathroom Injures DC Man

Albert Calvary, 42, of 120 West Moltke street, Tuesday morning slipped on the tile floor of his bathroom and struck his head on the edge of the bathtub, causing a laceration on his forehead.

Calvary, an IBM operator with Matson Navigation Company, was taken to Junipero Serra Hospital where he was treated and released.

SPECIAL ELECTION

$2.50 School Tax Termed 'Necessary'

"We felt that a rate of $2.50 was necessary," was Superintendent H. Z. Weibel's reply to the question, "what was the original recommendation of the administrative staff regarding the Jefferson Elementary District tax election." His answer was to the S.O.S. Committee, meeting at the Benjamin Franklin School last week, at which the group discussed once more the legal mechanics of this "emergency election," on July 29.

It is intended that by calling this election to ask for a maximum permissible rate of $2.50, further elections for this purpose should be unnecessary for at least a five-year period. This is dependent upon the rapidity of the growth of the district, Weibel noted.

In order to benefit from this increase next school year, this elementary school district election must be held before July 31. Failure to pass on July 29 will necessitate reverting to the $1.50 rate which has not been sufficient for the past two years. All reserve funds have been expanded, Weibel went on.

It is anticipated that to maintain the current level of education, a tax rate of approximately $2.04 will be necessary this fall, the superintendent repeated. Actual determination of the rate will be the responsibility of our new school board which takes office July 1.

The S.O.S. Committee last week lauded the teachers of the district for their support. They have donated a total of $170 to the work of this organization.

Those voters expecting to be out of the District on July 29 may obtain absentee ballot applications by contacting Mrs. Plant, 51 Westmont, PL 5-9115.

Wednesday, July 2, is the date set for the next S.O.S. Committee meeting. This will be held at the General Pershing School, 631 Hanover street. The public is invited to attend, starting at 7:30 p.m.

COUNCIL HEARS VICKERS ON RAPID TRANSIT

Ex-Councilman Sanford Vickers returned to city hall Monday night to cite the "inevitability" and timetable on the rapid transit system, which he says should be in effect hereabouts in approximately eight years.

Vickers explained the powers and structure of the local rapid transit district, covering the counties of San Francisco, San Mateo, Marin, Contra Costa and Alameda.

He said he has been studying rapid transit the past two months and pledged his cooperation to work with the city's traffic committee on all developments concerning freeways and rapid transit.

Vickers said the film, "Millions On The Move," is available to all groups and explains what rapid transit means and "has accomplished in other areas."

'SHORT-CHANGE' ARTIST GETS SHORT-CHANGED

A short-change "artist" was not too artful in trying to make off with $10 of King's Market money.

On May 13, a man identified Tuesday as Walter T. Lacy of 2122 Sutter street, walked into the 2350 Junipero Serra boulevard store. He purchased 47 cents worth of goods and gave the clerk, Kenneth H. Huffman, 370 Teddy avenue, San Francisco, $1.

Then Lacy asked for a $10 bill and left nine dollars on the counter. The clerk noticed this, so Lacy put another dollar down. Then he asked for a $20 bill, left only $10 on the counter and walked out.

San Bruno police had picked Lacy up on a similar charge and notified Daly City police. He was released by San Bruno police without a charge but was not so fortunate in Daly City as he was identified by the clerk and a customer.

Lacy, owner of a late-model convertible, was released on bail.

KPIX TEAM TO EUROPE... Feeling ourselves right back in France with the chatter of French all around us, we recently attended a press reception at San Francisco's famed "Cerl cle De L'Union" or French Club where we previewed the films of San Francisco which a KPIX three-man team will present to the French network. In Europe to cover the Brussel's World Fair and Lourdes' 100th anniversary celebration, Program Manager William Dempsey, Pete Abenheim (Catain Fortune) and Public Relations Director Al Baccari Jr. plan to film interviews, panel discussions and activities of European children which will be shown over KPIX as well as other Westinghouse stations.

We think this international exchange of film and program ideas is a wonderful way to strengthen friendship between nations. Television can be a powerful ambassador for us if it is used wisely, and certainly can vividly bring to the European people a picture of life in America.

Council Nixes Monthly Pay On Ambulance

M&D Ambulance company's request for a $200 a month subsidy from the city was cold-shouldered Monday night by councilmen.

The city-servicing firm, volunteering in May last year to provide ambulance service at not cost to the city, claims it is in arrears financially because many of its patients hadn't paid their bills.

Mayor Micheal DeBernardi and Councilman Joseph Verducci both nixed any idea that the city should start paying a fee to M&D.

"They wanted the contract and what their financial problems may be are strictly their responsibility," said the mayor. "I can't see paying them for this type service."

Verducci, echoing DeBernardi's sentiments, asked the city manager to prepare alternate courses "should M&D decide to end their tieup with the city."

City Manager Howard Stites, reminding the council that M&D company "seem to have more than the average amount of business," recalled that the firm earlier was advised to contract with the county for compensation.

DeBernardi noted that the M&D pact with the city expired at one year last month. Whether it will be renewed depends on the reaction of the company to the council's stand Monday.

Mrs. Wimberly, Appleton End Trustee Chores

Attorney Hartley Appleton, 1 El Portal Way, and housewife Mrs. Doris Wimberly, 892 North Mayfair, ended terms as trustees with Jefferson Elementary School Board last night.

Both were defeated in re-election bids last month.

Appleton, chairman of the board the past year, is completing four years of service with the district. Mrs. Wimberly was appointed last year when trustee Henry Kraus resigned.

Taking oaths July 1 are the new trustees, elected to four-year terms, Thomas Noonan, 471 C street, and Frank R. Verducci, 70 Westdale avenue.

Noonan works for the telephone company. Verducci, brother of the Daly City councilman, teaches at Everett Junior High school, San Francisco.

Other board members are veterans Michael Callan, Joseph Lewkowitz and Mrs. Katherine Mullen. Of these three, only Lewkowitz has not served as board chairman.

The new chairman will be designated next week.

TRUSTEESHIPS CHANGE HANDS

Chairman Hartley Appleton and Mrs. Doris Wimberly Wednesday night completed trustee terms on Jefferson Elementary School board.

Next Tuesday in official swearing-in ceremonies, Thomas "Tom" Noonan and Frank Verducci, victorious at the polls last month, take over for the defeated incumbents.

Outvoted for re-election, Appleton and Wimberly, in the opinion of this newspaper, deserve a note of appreciation for the conscientious duty they have rendered the district.

Likewise, words of encouragement are due Noonan and Verducci, who will embark on the oft-times difficult and thankless trustee assignments for the first time.

Both will find the job involves many headaches and that in helping to run the schools it is extremely difficult to please every citizen or patron.

We wish the two newcomers maximum success in working with the three veteran board members.

At the same time, we are certain that the dedication exhibited by Appleton and Wimberly to the children of the district did not expire with their terms of office this week.

TEENAGE PROGRAM

'SALUTE TO YOUTH' SCHEDULED IN BROADMOOR THIS SEPTEMBER

By A. G. Delfino

A two-pronged campaign to revitalize Broadmoor's teenage program received unanimous approval of the Broadmoor Property Owners Association board of directors at the group's last regular meeting.

Drafted jointly by Lou Manis, 211 Village Lane, Colma Association president; Adriano G. Delfino, 1024 Washington, Colma, vice president and publicity chairman, and Mrs. Gracia Krueger, 1816 Louvaine, Colma, secretary and youth welfare chairman, the elaborate program calls for simultaneous action by two major committees, leading to a gala "Salute to Broadmoor Youth," Sunday, September 14.

"Briefly," said Manis in announcing details of the youth plan, "we are dividing our teenage program into two phases—a year 'round program of social, athletic, cultural and civic activities, and a short range planning program designed to direct the community's attention to our youth projects. This short range program will be climaxed by a community-wide festival, featuring a parade, guest appearances by radio-TV and sports personalities, a civic program and an outdoor dance."

To implement these activities, Manis appointed Mrs. Krueger as coordinator of year 'round activities. In this capacity, the active and popular matron will supervise the registration of members, selection of interim officers, drafting of the club by-laws and code of behavior, and the planning of facilities and manpower for the entire program. Mrs. Krueger is being assisted by Mrs. Robert Roscow, 803 Stoneyford, Colma, chairman of organization and planning; Edmond Cyr, 14 Sullivan, Colma, chairman of programming, and another chairman who will head the adult guidance committee.

Simultaneously, another coordinator, Chester Mattison, 1775 Sweetwood, Colma, and his committee will be working on details of the kickoff festival to be held September 14. Working with Mattison are Warren Vocke, 691 MacArthur, who is arranging details of the mammoth parade; Mrs. Mona Baker, 844 Beachwood, TIMES radio-TV columnist, who is lining up personalities from the entertainment field; Chronicle photographer Art Frisch, 439 89th street, who is arranging participation by sports personalities; Bob Ellis, 447 89th street, in charge of motorized non-military units (sports cars, hot rods, etc.), and Pal Nolli, 812 Heather, who is handling post-parade activities.

Initial signup for the youth group were conducted yesterday (Tuesday) at the Community Center on White street. Registration will be on a continuing basis, and members will be accepted as they come in. Further information on the teenage program may be secured from Mrs. Krueger (PL 5-1509) or Mrs. Roscoe (PL 5-4429).

In other actions of the board, the BPOA directors heard Manis report on the status of the White Street project. According to Manis, the county board of supervisors has rejected builder Doelger's offer of land fill, and the White street issue is not expected to come up before the board for another couple of years. Meanwhile, proponents and opponents of the plan to build the Broadmoor-Westlake link are advised to present written arguments with supporting signatures from Broadmoor residents.

SUMMER PROJECTS

DC-Colma Girl Scouts Keep Busy At Crystal Springs, Camp Sonora

By Servart Ojakian

For hundreds of Girl Scouts in the Daly City-Colma area, summer time is fun time and camping time. It's a time to enjoy and learn about the great outdoors.

The youngest Girl Scouts or Brownies start out by going to nearby day camps such as the one in Crystal Springs Park in San Bruno. The Fly-Ups, Intermediates and the more advanced girl leaders also go to close-by day camps. This week, the second session of both the Crystal Springs and the Linda Mar camps are taking place and the girls are having a grand time. This early training acts as a prelude to their later, more advanced camp activities in the future.

Camp Sonora, located 150 miles from San Mateo County and four miles from Sonora, is the more experienced campers' paradise. It is located in the midst of 70 acres of wooded hills and open meadow, and offers every advantage of good outdoor living, mountain trails for hiking, scenic spots for out-of-camp trips and swimming in a beautiful pool.

This year there will be four sessions, starting June 30 and ending August 23. At each session 80 girls will be accommodated. The cost is $38 for each camper.

There are no visiting days while camp is in session as Sonora is planned for the campers. However, parents may see camp during the Open House celebration on June 29.

This will be the fifth year anniversary of Camp Sonora with a rededication ceremony. All parents and friends are invited to attend the Sunday, June 29, Open House at Sonora.

'Nonesuch' Farewell Party Fetes Marie Traynor, Retiring Principal

"There never was such a party" was the consensus of opinion of all those former students who gathered recently at Brentwood Lodge to honor their one-time teacher, Miss Marie H. Traynor, at a farewell dinner.

Classes covering more than 30 years were represented. They came from Stockton, Palo Alto, Marin, Menlo, San Mateo, Burlingame, Hillsborough, Beverly Hills and many other localities as well as their home towns of Daly City and Colma.

Despite the years of difference between the classes, a common bond united all these former students of Woodrow Wilson and Jefferson Elementary Schools. They were all there to express their appreciation and affection and to do honor to one who through all the years, has held their respect and affection as teacher and friend.

The sentiments of the group were eloquently expressed by Dan Casentini, Michael Callan, Thomas Bocci, Peter Markovich, George Lagomarsino and others. Thomas Callan Sr. also gave a sincere and inspiring talk. He said he was present, not as a student, but as the father of five children, all of whom had h[illegible] Miss Traynor as a teacher. Among those signing the guest book were: Fred Bertetta Sr. and Fred Bertetta Jr., Harvey Phelan, Pat Markovich, Peter Conci, Peter Mazzanti, Verna (Moresco) Calderon, Thomas Tromborg Jr., Milton Tromborg, Lola Casentini, Ann Gray, Maxine (Slaght) Borland, Dr. Leland Borland, Elizabeth (Cattori) Kruse, Michael Callan, Victoreen (Bertini) Kappeler, Bob Funge, Ed Dennis Jr., the Ottonellos, Angelina, Rico, Esther and Gino; Louis Mangiante, Lena (Ciarlo) Rossi, Marie (Ciarlo) Bosio, Louise (Baciocco) Brent, Bernice (Bertini) Devencenzi, Helen (Bertini) Funge, Michael Ciardella, Oliver Grannucci, Angelo Casentini, Angelina Casentini, Alma Simonetti, Norma (Simonetti) Fulcher.

Some, unable to attend the dinner, dropped in a little later. Among these were Leo, Dorothy and John Tealdi.

A gold bracelet was presented to Miss Traynor as a token of esteem from the group.

CICHOCKI JOINS NAVY RECRUIT OFFICE HERE

Stanley S. Cichocki, aviation chief machinist's mate and 18-year Navy vet, has joined the recruiting staff at 6705 Mission street.

The native of Reading, Pennsylvania, he will succeed Chief Leo C. Polhemus as head Navy recruiter here this September. Polhemus, in Daly City since 1955, will retire in three months with 20 years' service.

Cichocki, 43, comes here from duty in maintenance administration aboard the carrier USS Yorktown in the Far East. He and his wife, Ethel, reside in Sunnyvale.

Richard Urie Gets Lt. Bars

Air Force Cadet Richard T. Urie of Daly City was among 63 graduating seniors commissioned as second lieutenants in the Reserve during the University of Oregon's commencement weekend. Twenty of the cadets were commissioned by the Air Force Reserve and 43 by the Army Reserve.

Urie's address here is 284 Second avenue.

Fourth Graders Name New School 'Fernando Rivera'

Jefferson Elementary School District officials go before State Allocations Board next Month to request funds to build a school on the Westlake Basin property adjoining West lake Park.

Trustees have moved to name the new elementary school (expected to be completed by May of 1960), Fernando Rivera, after the Spanish captain who led military expeditions in California about 1769.

Credit for naming the new plant, according to Supt. Henry Weibel, goes to fourth graders at Westlake School. After studying Rivera's record they suggested the name to the school board.

The Town Record

By Roy Hurlbert

Last week's "Miss Daly City" affair was a dandy and was won by one. MARY CUNNINGHAM will do this town right proud in county competition. She conceivably could go all the way to the State Fair shindig. But the county hurdle is quite a step. DC in three tries in San Mateo has finished out of the running.

Main thorns in the Chamber contest at Westlake Joe's was the timing and the turnout. The program was not organized, lacked pace, and drew few spectators. There were many empty seats.

It might be a better idea to hold the judging next time in a place which would accomodate more folks.

A daily newspaper last weekend quoted County Supervisor Tom Callan Sr. (of Colma) rather frankly in a discussion on unincorporated Brisbane.

Said Callan, according to the sheet: "The only way to solve Brisbane's problems is to tear the place down and start all over again."

We question if the gentleman actually was quoted correctly. Brisbaners are a bit upset about the whole thing.

Not paid much compared to other professional workers, school teachers almost have to work during the summer layoff to meet family bills.

One of the most interesting part-time occupations we've heard about is that of Westmoor track coach and social studies teacher ERNIE RIBERA. He's riding shotgun for an armored car service. And not even with a TV script.

Crystal Springs Club will buzz to the roar of the DC-Colma Lions this Saturday night. The annual installation will feature a pat-on-the-back for outgoing president JOHN RADHUBER and a round of applause for his successor, RAY CHARETTE.

Lions' special guest will be Miss NANCY YOSHIDA, "Miss Japan of '55." She's biding her time as a secretary in San Francisco pending a Hollywood contract.

Monday's city council session was like old home week. Speakers from the audience included recent councilmen SANFORD VICKERS and DEL WILSON.

Win, lose or draw, neither has lost interest in promoting good government in Daly City. They've put in many extra hours serving the community.

Our nomination for "Commuter Of The Year" is DON DAVISON, Marchbanks' ad salesman, who reports to this paper every day from his home in San Jose.

Travel bother him? Not at all. He's an Ivy-League sports-car driver who enjoys the business-and-pleasure jaunts up and down the Peninsula.

Members of the SOS Citizens Committee, pushing the July 29 special tax election for Jefferson Elementary School District, are disturbed by the opposition they're receiving from none other than one of the newly elected trustees.

Start your home food storage program today. Contact your civil defense agency for other survival programs and information for your family now.

MAYOR Micheal DeBernardi authorizes "Civil Aviation Day" and "Civil Aeronautics Week" in Daly City as Miss Celeste Adams, TWA hostess, and CAA tower operator Norm Merkel beam approval at International Airport. CAA is marking its 20th birthday. Miss Adams is CAA's "Miss 20/20" for the anniversary.

Letters To The Editor

Doctor Praises Firemen For Saving Patient

(Editor's Note: Following is letter to Daly City Fire Chief Elmer Kennedy, praising Bttn. Chief Mel Hanson and fireman Paul DeNatali for their part in a recent emergency call—saving the life of a patient in Westlake.)

Dear Chief:

I wish to express my sincerest thanks for your cooperation and promptness in the emergency delivery of oxygen to my office at 48 Park Plaza drive.

Your promptness was the difference between life and death as we were successful in restoring the patient to a viable condition.

Without the oxygen the patient would have expired.

Very truly yours,

Yanks Bombard Giants, 12-6; Lead Pacifica

Despite home run clouts by Willard Bushard and John Fretwell, the Pacific Manor Yankees took over undisputed first place from the Vallemar Giants at Westmoor High Friday in the Pacifica Teenage Baseball League. Score was 12-6.

Don Katona was credited with the win. He was aided by a home run by Rich Marales. Katona also pitched Wednesday when the Yankees shut out the Sharp Park Braves, 12-0.

Wednesday's other games found the Giants trouncing the Westview Red Sox, 20-1, behind Beaver Swanson's pitching, white the Westview Indian's Mel Tucker pitched his way to a 12-10 win over the Linda Mar Cardinals.

Saturday's only game gave the spectators a lot of baseball when the Cardinals won over the Braves, 14-9. Tom Kukur pitched his way out of a tie to take the victory, helped by Charlie English's homer.

This Saturday's schedule shows the Yankees versus the Indians at Pacifica field, the Giants versus the Braves at Linda Mar and the Red Sox versus the Cardinals at Westmoor.

Games are scheduled to start at 2:30 p.m. at Pacifica and Linda Mar fields and 4 p.m. at Westmoor.

More Families Afloat

What is it Americans love about boating? Speed, the carefree spray of water, the open waterway on a summer day. Boating, the biggest boom in family recreation today, is luring over 35 million persons a year for fishing, cruises, picnicking, vacations, waterskiing and sailing.

New developments in both boatbuilding and outboard motors have helped boost this sport to its present popularity rating. Not many years ago the outboard motor was considered a means of travel for the fishermen only. Now the price of a boat is within the range of the average family. And these boats feature the latest design, comfort and safety.

Safety is one of the features built into the boat. In many pleasure craft the family is actually sitting on safety. Fitted beneath the seat is a flotation material—expanded polystyrene plastic. Each cubic foot of this rigid plastic foam can support 55 pounds in water. The boat shown above is unsinkable with four persons aboard and outboard motor attached.

This same rigid plastic foam is being used as a buoyancy material for rafts and docks.

The combination of better equipment, more leisure time, high standards of living and convenient waterways has meant that each year thousands more discover the joys of boating. There is plenty of evidence that the boom will continue.

LAW IN ACTION

DON'T IGNORE A SUMMONS

Under "due process of law" no court will render a judgment against you unless you have been given notice of the lawsuit and have had a chance to tell your story.

Jokesters laugh at the character who is always dodging the process server. But once you have received reasonable notice under the law the court will hear the case against you, ready or not. And if you are not there or represented the judge may well render a "default" judgment against you.

Such notice may be indirect when published in a newspaper. It may be direct as when the process server or peace officer hands you a copy of the complaint and summons. You may be served personally by a peace officer or by any competent adult. And you had better read and act on these papers.

Don't think you can avoid being served by just leaving the state.

A new California law gives a court jurisdiction over a person who lived here when the cause of the action arose—when he had the automobile accident or broke the contract, even though he left the state before the action started or the summons was served.

Finally, don't skip a summons just because a court in another state issued the papers: Like California, many states have laws which say in effect that by using the state's highways the non-resident driver—that could be you—agrees to accept service of process in lawsuits resulting from highway accidents. Sometimes service is made merely by sending the papers to the agency which corresponds to California's Motor Vehicle Department.

Ignore such a summons and the court may give a "default" judgment with teeth in it.

Note: California lawyers offer this column so you may know about our laws.

WORKERS IN HIGHWAY CONSTRUCTION

More than 475,000 workers are employed in highway construction and maintenance in the United States.

ADD MILES TO TIRES

You can add miles to the life of your tires by keeping them properly inflated, National Automobile Club advises you to check them once a week.

By law, California produces only one variety of cotton, Acala 4-42.

Europe Is Bargain-Hunter's Paradise

Like a de luxe supermarket crowded with bargains, Europe this summer promises to be a happy hunting ground for record crowds of U.S. shoppers.

Discerning tourists have discovered that—despite generally rising prices—gift costs are still low in the countries across the Atlantic. Those who "shop ahead" for Christmas, birthday and other gifts can often save a good share of the cost of their trip. According to the European Travel Commission, a single dollar wisely spent abroad can often do the work of three or four dollars spent here.

Milady heading for a European holiday this year will find bargains in French perfumes, Italian leathergoods, Austrian "peasant" embroidery, British woolens, and Yugoslav filigree jewelry. She'll discover beautiful kidskin gloves in Madrid for about $2.00 a pair, stunning Portuguese ceramic dishes shaped like fruits and vegetables for well under $1.00, smart Scandinavian porcelain, crystal, stainless steel and sterling silver, furniture and textiles for a fraction of what they cost at home.

"Best Buys" For Men

Male tourists, ordinarily allergic to shopping, will happily part with their travelers' checks when they discover they can order a fine tailored-to-order suit in Ireland, Great Britain, Spain and Italy for the price of an undistinguished "ready-made" at home. German and Swiss cameras, Belgian briar pipes, Italian hats, belts and wallets, and even small European cars are other popular "best buys."

Liberal U.S. Customs rulings permit each returning U.S. tourist who has been outside the country 12 days or longer, to bring back $500 worth of purchases duty-free. When families travel together, each member is entitled to this exemption and they may pool their individual exemptions when bringing back a costly item such as an automobile.

As an extra convenience to the tourist, gifts purchased overseas and valued at less than $10 may be mailed back to the States duty-free via inexpensive international parcel post. These gifts need not be declared to U.S. customs when the traveler returns. Packages so mailed should however, be clearly marked "Gift Enclosed" and must not contain alcoholic beverages, perfumes or tobacco products.

Slow-Moving Cars Should Keep To Right Of Highway

Drivers who fail to keep right when driving slower than the normal speed of traffic on multi-lane highways are traffic law violators says the California Highway Patrol.

"Section 525.1 of the Vehicle Code requires a driver who is driving slower than the normal speed of traffic to keep in the right-hand lane or as near the right edge as is practical," declared Patrol Commissioner B. R Caldwell. "There would be less congestion and fewer accidents if all drivers would heed this rule.

"Frequently, cars pile up behind a driver loafing along in the passing lane, setting up accident potentials for every driver who endeavors to move with the normal flow of traffic," Caldwell said. "Frequently, the slow driver who sets up the hazardous situation is not involved in the accident, nor is he always aware of the consequences of his act.

"To eliminate this condition, motorists must stay in the right-hand lane except when preparing to turn left or while overtaking and passing another vehicle," he concluded. "It is well to keep in mind that the driver who persists in driving slowly in the passing lane is a proper subject for a traffic citation."

B'nai Israelites Hold Picnic At San Mateo Park

Sunday's picnic at Beresford Park in San Mateo climaxed the Sunday School's activities at B'nai Israel. Plans are already on the move for next season's program and many improvements and events are on the agenda, so all those interested in registering their children should make inquiries at the Temple office, 67 Los Banos avenue.

Services this Friday will be taken over in part by Rabbi Shore's pupils, who will review aspects of Jewish culture and history. Rabbi Shore's sermon for the evening is "The Religious World of a Child." Refreshments will follow the services and the public is invited.

During the month of July, Rabbi Shore will be on vacation and the male members wish to announce that there will be laymen's services conducted every Friday during his absence.

Serra Theater Has Summer Season Tickets

Serra Theater still has about 300 tickets left in its special Summer Vacation Movies plan for local youngsters.

The summer season tickets, costing a total of only $1.25, entitles each youngster to see 12 movies, one each Thursday. Non-season ticket holders will be charged 30 cents for each admission. Season ticket buyers thus save $2.05. And these purchasers may buy more than one season ticket.

At each performance at least two members of the PTA will be one hand to act as chaperones. Doors open each Thursday at 12:30 p.m., with the show starting at 1 o'clock and ending between 3 and 3:15 p.m.

All programs are PTA-approved. Each consists of one big feature, plus cartoons and shorts.

Parents are asked to pick up their children immediately after each matinee. Police officers will be dispatched to direct traffic.

'Summer School' Episode Backfires

Four youngsters who couldn't stay away from school during the summer vacation found themselves in trouble with police last Friday.

The four youths threw either a "cherry bomb" or firecrackers in the hall at Jefferson High School. Police traced the license number given them and found the teen-agers. They were reprimanded, then released.

State Comparisons

SURVEY INDICATES DALY CITY GOVERNMENT GOOD ECONOMICALLY

By Bob Hirsch

Daly City was found to be one of the most economically administered cities of its size in California, according to a recently published comparative study of some 24 cities in California with populations of 25,000 to 35,000, issued by the state controller.

The study, reflecting the overwhelmingly residential character of the Daly City tax base, showed the assessed valuation here of $27,117,695 to be some 11½ million dollars below the average for the 24 cities, while at the same time, the Daly City tax rate of $1.48 and bonded indebtedness of $835,500 compared favorably with the average rate of $1.365 and indebtedness of $1,173,070.

Figures for some other cities of comparable size, listed in order of assessed valuation, general tax rate and bonded indebtedness, were: South San Francisco, $45,073,850, $1.565, $1,055,000; Redwood City, $89,715,230, $1.28, $2,674,000; Santa Clara, $34,356,150; $1.488, $1,514,000; Modesto, $42,581,495, $1.47, $2,841,000; Eureka, $27,911,710, $2.25, $2,537,000; Daly City, $27,117,695, $1.48, $835,500.

Revenue received from property taxes during fiscal 1956-1957 was: South San Francisco, $762,567; Redwood City, $1,094,809; Santa Clara, $703,432; Modesto, $750,330; Eureka, $715,144, and Daly City, $384,396. Average revenue from property taxes for the 24 cities studied was $556,635.

Expenditures for executive administration (salaries and expenses for the top city administrators) for the 24 cities averaged $44,045. Daly City spent only $36,949 for this purpose, while South San Francisco expended $54,772.

Total expenditure for protection to persons and property, including capital outlays (fire, police and other protection services), averaged $530,905 for all the cities studied. Daly City spent a total of $336,456 for these services (second lowest in the state for cities of comparable size providing both police and fire protection services).

This figure is even more remarkable when considering that the Daly City administration was able to secure general reductions in fire insurance rates, through increased efficiency of fire protection services during this period. South San Francisco spent a total of $506,189 for protection services, while Redwood City, with a heavy capital outlays program, expended $1,457,127.

Even though rapidly expanding its developed areas and facilities, Daly City spent some 26 per cent less than the 24-city average for streets, lighting, highways and engineering. City Manager Howard Stites, a registered civil engineer, was able to effect substantial savings to the city.

Figures for expenditures for this purpose by comparable cities were: South San Francisco $260,863; Redwood City, $417,826; Santa Clara, $238,918; Modesto, $396,919; Eureka, $532,976; Daly City, $209,507. The 24-city average was $286,140.

So speaks Otis Calhoun, public works director, who reports the 60-day, $10,000 repair job is just about finished. Crews are adding almost two feet of water a day to the million-gallon tank and should have it filled by the end of this week.

Health inspectors then will move in to take bacteriological tests for water safety.

In charge of the reservoir reconstruction is the firm of Contractor Edward Frazier.

Public safety authorities suggest that whenever a person is seen making a pest of himself by clownish behavior in or around a boat, or for that matter in an auto on the highway, annoyed or endangered bystanders can give the unmistakable "Thumbs Down" sign — universally recognized signal of disapproval. When the "goof-off" offender sees enough people make this sign, he'll know he's doing something he shouldn't do, even if he can't hear above the roar of a motor. He'll know that others know it, too. If, in common with the vast majority, he's a fair sportsman, psychologists say he will stop his foolishness and act like a gentleman.

So — let's all remember — "Thumbs Down Means Don't Clown!" Also, when towing a boat, don't forget to have proper lights on trailer and drive extra carefully," advises Petrocchi.

City's PAL D

Door-to-Door Appeal Launched To Support Youth Organization

By Lou Lucia

Members of the recently organized Police Atheletic League are holding a door-to-door canvassing drive to raise funds for the youth of Daly City this week.

PAL is a mass recreation program providing recreation and enjoyment for hundreds of youths in unserved areas. The police department is accepting $1 to $9 donations for Associate Membership cards and $10 and up for Sustaining Membership cards.

"A contribution to PAL is more than a gift, it is an investment," will be one of the bywords written on the PAL organization objectives which will be shown to residents.

Objectives

PAL's goal is to make decent citizens of tomorrow through the aid of voluntary contributions and free-time allotment by men of the police force and interested citizens.

The program of PAL consists of all kinds of recreational activities. Basketball, softball and baseball teams along with the Christmas party, skating parties and trips to Seals Stadium help to engender a spirit of cooperation.

The PAL does not receive any funds from any city or state budgets but depends solely on contributions to help guide and direct youngsters in finding ways to spend their leisure time without getting into trouble.

Youngsters are given a feeling of belonging, parents are furnished something additional to reinforce good home relations and the community is helped by PAL by furnishing a crime prevention program saving lives and dollars.

How It Began

Chief Roland Petrocchi called officer John Coleman into his office in April, 1957, and stated he wanted to start some type of boys club. Coleman was an eight-year member of the JACKIE Foundation, and at one of their luncheons met Father Murphy.

The priest told Coleman of the PAL in New York and directed him to notify William Carozza of Redwood City for procedural practice. Since then Carozza has made numerous calls at the Daly City police station and outlined the program as it works in New York.

In October, 20 boys signed up in the newly-formed organization here. The largest recruitment was in January of this year when 115 youths entered. To date the League has 309 youths in the PAL.

Coleman noted that hopes are high for the improvement of facilities, more instructors and a varied program. He said that this can only be done through donations to the non-profit organization.

The boxing and basketball teams started in November and the eighth grade hoopsters beat out recreation department teams for the title. There were six PAL basketball teams entered.

Limited Facilities

The boxers, who have used local high school facilities, do not have a ring of their own or even a punching bag. Yet, through these help-aids and 50 pairs of donated boxing gloves, Richard Nunes and Don Hermosillo managed to be named outstanding boxers in the San Bruno and Vallemar matches.

Swimming was on the agenda once a month for the boys until baseball season began. The horsehiders have four teams composed of boys 12 years and younger. Two of the teams have uniforms and the other two are hoping for them through donations.

Coleman pointed up the need for additional equipment by saying that golf and marksmanship might become a part of the activities if the money is raised. On Wednesday nights the gym floor is exclusively given to PAL members.

Touch-tackle football teams will be initiated later in the year. "We haven't even touched the Westlake side because of a lack of instructors and money to be distributed," Coleman added.

On St. Valentine's day the PAL members presented a talent show with Kids-In-Performance, and each group receipted for $150 profits.

Clubhouse?

There are hopes of building a clubhouse to give the youths a place of their own. A donation of land will be needed here while building materials and free work by the union have been tentatively donated.

A $1000 pool table was given the club but there is no place to house it. A clubhouse would fill this need.

If finances permit, Coleman believes PAL will expand to sponsoring dances for teen-agers. However, this at present seems to be in the background of PAL needs.

Coleman stated that he has received a lot of praise through Marchbanks Publications, but says the organization would never have been possible without the aid of citizens, parents and coaches.

Soliciting cards may be picked up at the police station, 75 Wellington, or will be brought to the person's home if they so desire.

"Whether or not you feel you can afford to contribute, we are pleased to have your youngster as a member of PAL," Coleman said.

Directors

Directors of the PAL are: Joseph Lewkowitz, school trustee; the Reverends Roy Milam, Allen J. Downey, J. Richard Friedline and Thomas H. Whelpley; Father Richard W. Power; Father Joseph V. Garrity; Superior Judge Frank Blum; Municipal Judge Thomas L. Bocci Jr.; Recreation Director Dee Van Nest.

Broadmoor Midgets Win 8th Tilt, 19-3

The eighth week of Daly City Midget Baseball League play, sponsored by the Daly City Department of Parks and Recreation, saw the largest scores of the season produced as Broadmoor Youth Association cinched at least a tie for first place by downing Columbia Park Boys Club, 19-3.

Westlake Flying A remained in contention by downing PAL No. 2, 10-9. Portola Yankees also stayed in the running by beating PAL No. 1, 9-1. San Pedro Lunch ran away from Matsox, 18-2. Parkmerced defeated the Daly City Reds, 2-0.

As the league enters its last week, any one of three teams could conceivably win the pennant. BYA has the inside track with a 7-0 record. They have yet to play Daly City Reds, who are capable of upsetting any of the contenders.

Flying "A", with a 6-1-1 record, has to play one game against Columbia Park Boys Club and a play-off with Portola since their first meeting runs resulted in a 4-4 tie. This play-off game should determine second place in the league providing Broadmoor wins its game.

Portola Yankees have their final games against the winless Matsox, and a postponed game against PAL No. 2.
